advantage of. Very clean facilities. A very friendly arrival from Phil the manager who was always around and always helpful and chatty. Only stayed two nights. Would like to have Stayed longer."

Pembrokeshire coastal path at Abereiddy offering superb walking opportunities. So many places a short drive away to start other coastal walks But the best thing about this site are the wardens. They are friendly, knowledgeable about the local area and always around and about the site if needed."

views. Basic but very clean facilities and wifi has now been upgraded and so much better! Still no mobile phone signal though, but we don't mind this! No shops within walking distance but you can get great pizza from another site close by. Overall, an amazing place and we hope to visit again very soon."
