About Winchcombe

Set within the heart of the Cotswold countryside, Winchcombe campsite is a tranquil site and a place to sit back, relax, unwind and get back to nature.

With 61 Touring pitches, a mixture of both hardstanding and grass, although hardstanding pitches are level, grass pitches vary and, on some, levelling blocks may be required.

Winchcombe

This Site also offers options of both Seasonal and Storage pitches, and an exclusive, private, 10 pitch Luxury Lodge Park where it offers Holiday Home Ownership.

With a Lake forming the heart of this camp site, campers can both enjoy both wildlife and fishing (an Environment Agency Rod License is required to fish).

This site accepts all camping unit types and offers modern toilet and shower facilities to help make for a stress-free camping experience.

The Site also boasts a Recreation Room, Laundry, Information Room and enclosed Play Area.

Dog walkers are spoilt for choice, both with a small, shaded woodland Orchard and with an open meadow 10 Acre field.

Known as the 'walking capital of the Cotswolds', Winchcombe's position on the Cotswold's way and the Winchcombe way, makes it popular with walkers and historians alike. Easy walks to local pubs are available and are dog friendly.

National Cycle Route 41 is also close to the Campsite.
