

Dartmouth Club Site – Sugary Cove

Camping and Caravanning

Route Summary

This walk from the Dartmouth Club Site takes you on a beautiful coastal walk with views across the sea to Dartmouth. The highlight is Sugary beach cove which is tucked into a nook in the wooded cliffs. Points of interest: Coastal Views Sugary Cove

Route Overview

Category: Walking
Length: 8.820 km / 5.51 mi
Last Modified: 18th July 2017
Difficulty: Medium
Rating: Unrated
Surface: Moderate
Date Published: 11th July 2017

Description

A three-hour walk from the Dartmouth Club Site on Lanes, Paths and Tracks. Steep steps down to Sugary Cove.

1. Start

From Dartmouth Club Site turn R on pavement.

2. 0.48km/0.3 miles

At Coast Path signpost turn L, proceed down Redlap Lane.

3. 1.61km/1.0 miles

At T junction, turn R in approx 10 yds, following the Coast Path sign through National Trust (Little Dartmouth) car park.

Choose your trail

4. 4.02km/2.5 miles

Follow path, through wooden gates, staying on grassy path. Through gap in stone wall, take L path at fork. Follow coast path as it bends before descending down hill to finger post.

5. 4.98km/3.1 miles

Veer L following signpost Coast Path - Dartmouth, through wooden gate continue on path through ferns and woodland to Castle Road.

6. 5.15km/3.2 miles

Turn R at Compass Cottage for five yards, turn R at signpost Coast Path. Path bends slight R continue through woodland descending stone steps which zigzag, eventually leading to signpost on R and steps down to Sugary Cove.

7. 5.79km/3.6 miles

Return by the same path to T junction with Castle Road. At Compass Cottage turn L. Sign post – Public Bridleway – Little Dartmouth. Continue on road through wooden gates, straight on past cottages on L. Through wooden gate following grassy path (National Trust – Little Dartmouth).

8. 6.76km/4.2 miles

Through wooden gates.

9. 7.08km/4.4 miles

Continue on path past National Trust car park, signposted Stoke Fleming.

Choose your trail

Proceed up Redlap Lane to Dartmouth Road, turn R. Walk back on pavement to Dartmouth Club Site on L.

Waypoints

Choose your trail

