

Choose your trail

Milarrochy Bay Club Site - Conic Hill

Camping and Caravanning

Route Summary

This is a 3-hour linear walk from Milarrochy Bay Club Site following The West Highland Way to Conic Hill. Good path with some steps. The detour from The West Highland Way up to the summit of Conic Hill involves a short rocky scramble. Points Of Interest: Tom Weir Statue Loch Lomond Visitor Centre

Route Overview

Category: Hiking
Length: 10.090 km / 6.31 mi
Last Modified: 18th July 2017
Difficulty: Medium
Rating: Unrated
Surface: Moderate
Date Published: 11th July 2017

Description

This walk offers truly fantastic views over Loch Lomond and its many islands.

1. START

For this walk follow The West Highland Way marker posts.

Leave Milarrochy Bay Club Site, cross the road and turn R.

Follow path parallel to road. The path crosses over road running alongside a pebble beach at the side of Loch Lomond.

2. 0.73km/0.45 miles

Choose your trail

Cross a wooden bridge and continue through a car park, passing Milarrochy Bay Visitor Centre on L. Continue on the forest trail directly ahead.

3. 2.74km/1.7 miles

Follow forest path crossing stream. Ascend on stone steps and continue on shingle forest path before descending on stone steps. Turn L on road.

Follow road and turn R at junction down tarmac footpath towards Balmaha.

4. 2.9km/1.8 miles

Pass Tom Weir's statue on R.

Turn L at National Park Centre (opposite Oaktree Inn and Village Shop) into car park. Walk past the Loch Lomond

Visitor Centre on R. Continue through to the back of the car park.

5. 3.2km/2 miles

At the Forestry Commission sign take the right hand path following The West Highland Way sign.

Continue on forest path through wooden gate and up steps. Follow West Highland Way sign turning left at gravel path T junction. Follow the West Highland Way path ascending Conic Hill.

6. 4.8km/3 miles

To reach the summit of Conic Hill (a further 200 yards) you will have to leave the West Highland Way taking the path on R.

Return to Milarrochy Club Site using same route.

Waypoints

Choose your trail

viewranger

